MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

of Thomas Browne and Mary Eyre

(Large Cabinet Drawer A)

-----

Photostat of certificate, partly written and partly printed in the form used by Quakers in England. The certificate is that of "Thomas Browne, of Barking in the County of Essex, Shoemaker, son of George Browne late of the same place Shoemaker Decensed, And Mary Ayers, Daughter of Alexander Ayers of ----- in Lincolnshire, Deceased", dated "this Seventeenth day of the Fifth Month, called July, in the Year, according to the English Account, One Thousand Six Hundred Ninety and ffour". There are at least 37 subscribing witnesses, some of the names being illegible. As the photostat is badly smudged, no attempt was made to copy the certificate here, but the following interesting letter covers the facts relating thereto:

The Cottage,

Smithville, Burlington Co., N. J.,

9 mo. 21st, 1936.

Mr. George MacReynolds, Librarian.

Doylestown, Pa.

Dear Sir:

On Saturday last, I left with the woman in charge of the Historical Society's rooms a photostat copy of the marriage certificate of Thomas Browne and Mary Eyre, made in Plaistow, Essex, in 1694. The original parchment was, in 1890, in possession of the late John Shaw Brown, of Swarthmore, Pa., one time owner of the Bucks County Intelligencer.

I had lost trace of this document for many years, but found at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania a negative made by my friend, the late Gilbert Cope, and had a few copies made, one of which I promised to Mr. Russell Hayes, of the Friends' Historical Library at Swarthmore. The copy I left for your collection was intended for Warren S. Ely, but his decease precluded my giving it to him. The reason I passed it on to you is that possibly some descendants of Thomas Browne, through female lines, may be interested; Bucks County being the home of Thomas in his later years, and for two or three generations his descendants intermarried with other Quaker families in that section--Dyers, Shaws, Michener, Paxson, Ellicott, and others.

Thomas Browne and his family came to Philadelphia in the winter of 1700-1701, lived on Second street near the site of the present Christ Church, exchanging that property in 1708 for 245 acres in the manor of Moreland. In 1717 he purchased 1000 acres in Plumstead and in 1722 an additional 500 acres in Buckingham, dying in 1747-8 at his home at Brownsville, now Gardenville. Friends' Meeting was held in his house 1727, 8 and 9, and in 1730 he and two of his sons transferred, for a nominal sum, 15 acres for the use of Plumstead Meeting, then organized.

The descendants are mainly through female lines, but I may note Thomas Browne, Minister among Friends, in the Collection of Memorials of Deceased Friends, Philadelphia, 1787, London 1788; also, Major General Harvey Brown, graduate of West Point, &c. The Ellicott genealogy gives many descendants due to numerous marriages to Browns, daughters of mothers who were born Brown. Among these I may mention in our time the late M. Cary Thomas, of Bryn Mawr College.

Being interested in genealogy, I wrote a number of notices of Bucks County families for the second edition of General Davis' History. If you know of any descendants of Thomas Browne interested in the family history,

I shall be glad to hear of them.

Sincerely yours,

F. Wigton Browne.

The original of this record is written in sepia ink in a small book of water-marked laid paper. The book, 3 $\frac{1}{4}$  by 6 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches, now contains 21 pages, including blanks. It is bound in boards, but only one board remains. The book is quite old, likely dating back to near the middle of the Eighteenth Century. The capital lettering of the first seven pages of records is beautifully done in classic Roman style, with ornamentation. The first three records of the eighth page seem to have been made by another hand in imitation of the lettering on the preceding pages, but not so well done, though they are in sepia ink. The last record is in still another hand, done in black ink. How this record came into the possession of The Bucks County Historical Society is not certainly known, though a record apart from the rest on one of the rear pages, namely, "Harriet Walton was born on the 22d Day of June 1828," may indicate that it came from the Society's Walton collection of manuscripts.

JOHN SCARBOROUGH, of London, Eng., coachmaker, arrived in this country 1682 with his son John, then a youth, and settled in Middletown, Bucks County, Pa., among the first in those parts, where he remained above two years; and embarked for his native country with intentions of bringing over his wife and family, having suffered much persecution for his religion in England, being a Quaker. He never returned as his wife, who was not a Quaker, did not wish to come; he gave his land in Pennsylvania to his son John.
